

KØBENHAVNS
UNIVERSITET

ISLAM IN THE HORN OF AFRICA

Final workshop of the ERC Project Islam in the Horn of Africa: a Comparative Literary approach (IslHornAfr)

Five years of research on the literary tradition of the Muslims of the Horn of Africa: achievements and further perspectives

13 December 2018 at 10:00 – 15:30

Venue: KUA2 – 22.1.62

Program

Five years of research on the literary tradition of the Muslims of the Horn of Africa: achievements and further perspectives

10:00-10:15 Alessandro Gori: Greetings and opening remarks

10:15-10:45 Andreas Wetter (Berlin): “Mission to Wällo: a first report”

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-11:30 Irmeli Perho: “Networks and connections - Harvesting information from the database”

11:30-12:00 Rasmus Bech Olsen: “Praise be onto he who made the pen deputy of the foot -Arabic letters in the Limmū-Ghannat collection”

12:00-13:00 Lunch break

13:00-13:30 Sara Fani: “The retrieved manuscript heritage of the Kabirto clan (‘Afar): scribes, authors and their works”

13:30-14:00 Michele Petrone: “Devotional Arabic Poetry in Ethiopia between Classical Tradition and Local developments”

14:00-14:15 Break

14:15-14:45 Adday Hernandez-Lopez: “Andalusi and Maghribi heritage in the Horn of Africa”

14:45-15:15 Final discussion

15:15-15:30 Alessandro Gori: instead of a conclusion

Discussants: Prof. Paolo La Spisa (University of Florence); Hassen Kawo (University of Addis Ababa-University of Cape Town)

Organized by Islam in the Horn of Africa Project. For info contact: Alessandro Gori frd322@hum.ku.dk

